What is Elder Financial Abuse?

Elder financial abuse occurs when someone takes advantage of a senior citizen and cheats them out of money or property. This person can be a friend, family member or a stranger. Watch for signs of the abuse and report anything suspicious to the authorities.

Possible signs may include, but are not limited to:

- Bank accounts show unusual activity.
- Belongings are missing.
- Will is suddenly changed.
- Isolation from friends and family.
- Fear of speaking up for themselves
- Changes in personality or behavior
- Purchasing items that the senior cannot use
- Financial situation suddenly changes
- Senior is receiving care well below the level he or she can afford.

CREDIT UNION NEWS

Patty Forister, Marilyn Pettit and Ryan Franklin were elected to the Citco Board of Directors at our Annual Meeting in May.

Kathy Tiffany was appointed to our Supervisory Committee last month also.

We appreciate our volunteers and the time they give to the Credit Union!
